MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: John F. Blake
Acting Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

1 FEB 1978

Stan:

1. You asked Frank Carlucci and myself to present some options as to how best to use Harold Brown's time if he makes a visitation out here. This paper is responsive to your request.

2. The options are as follows:

a. If the visit is only of one hour's duration--

(1) Meet with a group from NFAC in your conference room and discuss several significant, substantive issues, i.e., SALT II, Limited Test Ban, Indian Ocean, etc.

OR

(2) Gather the "operating officials," i.e., Office Heads, and Division Chiefs in DDO, plus the DD's and ADD's in Room 1A 07 Hqs (the room where you presented John McMahon to the DDO people) and have a wider list of agenda subjects. In addition to picking one mentioned for the NFAC session, also ask the Secretary to give his comments on human collection and perhaps also future developments in overhead reconnaissance.

b. If it is a two-hour session--

(1) Both of the above options could be handled in a two-hour session

OR

(2) Pick one of the above two options and then have a general free-flowing conversation in the conference room with you and your Community and Agency Deputies.

c. If the Secretary could afford three hours at midday, use the first two options and then have a lunch with you and the Community and Agency Deputies.

3. Frank Carlucci has seen and is in agreement with this paper.
